Other Business/Updates:

- Kevin Cantwell reminded the committee of Town Meeting on April 26, 2021 and encouraged attendance. Kevin will present the CPC article as directed by the Town Moderator and will ask proposers to be ready to discuss their project should it be needed. Don McAleer mentioned a few items have been withdrawn from the warrant and does not anticipate anything controversial to be presented.
- Mike Bilas asked if we had heard from the town regarding CPC's willingness to fund an affordable housing study. Kevin had not received any information. Kerry Richardson informed the committee the Housing Partnership will be meeting in the next few weeks and will make this known to its membership.
- Kevin Cantwell informed the committee that a bid was accepted to begin construction on the multi sports courts to be located on town land at the Boys and Girls Club.
- Kerry Richardson requested that members from other town groups that anticipate a request for future CPC funds to present at an upcoming CPC meeting to discuss future projects.

- Meghan Enwright informed the committee that “We are Marshfield” will cleaning and providing maintenance to the Adam Keeler Street Hockey Rink (partially funded by CPC) on April 30th. Meghan suggested this could serve as a model for the maintenance of other CPC funded projects.
