Mr. Guimond said he has spoken with Mr. D. J Sullivan and Mr. Dan Smith and they both seem to be on board with not going forward with this article. Mr. Guimond has written a draft article that he thinks will cover their concerns without changing the zoning districts. He showed the Board the proposed changes.

They are:

3.05 Table of Use Regulations; Retail and Service:

3.0 Contractor- Artist Rental Bay Facilities including: Workshops/light processing/light assembling, office and storage. This would not be allowed in the R-1, R-2, R-3,R-B, B-3, B-4, O-P, A and the BRVO Districts. It would be allowed by Right in the I-1 District and by Special Permit in the B1, B-2, PMUD and WRPD Districts.

USE

Wholesale, Transportation and Industrial

2.3 Processing and recycling of wood materials including: sawmills, cutting, shredding, grinding, drying, sorting and storage with accessory sales and rental of equipment. This would not be permitted in the R-1, R-2, R-3,. R-B, B-3, B-4, O-P, A or BRVO Districts.

It would be allowed by Right in the I-1 District and by Special Permit in the B-1, B-2, PMUD and the WRPD Districts.

Mr. Guimond recommends that the Board report and recommend against the private petitioner's article for this Town Meeting and work with the petitioner in preparing and submitting a Planning Board article for the fall Town Meeting. Mr. Guimond said that D.J. Sullivan and Mr. Brodsky are on board with this change. Mr. Guimond also recommended that when in the WRPD, the Planning Board should do the site plan review so that the applicant would have one stop shopping rather than having to go to both Boards.

Mr. Biviano moved to not recommend the petitioner's article. Ms. O'Donnell seconded. The vote was: Mr. Biviano, Aye; Ms. O'Donnell, Aye; Mr. Cantwell, Aye; Mr. Monaco, Aye; Mr. Pappastratis, Aye.
