ABSENT: Vicki McPherson, Keith Rice

VISITORS: Mike Arsenault, Judy Freden, Angela Scieszka

Meeting opened at 7:06 pm with motion by Eric & 2nd by Steve, passed unanimously

Angela noted a possible temporary solution for empty kiosks and brought examples for committee to consider

Vote on May 29 minutes pushed to next meeting.

Brendan introduced Bridle Path/Rail Trail working group/sub committee topic. Working group organization was noted as less cumbersome. Need to ensure transparency noted. Brendan & Greg will schedule with Mike Maresco about formation of working group/subcommittee.

Judy asked if we were still planning on removing the horse riders picture from the RTC Project Presentation. Ned confirmed that picture will be removed before any further use of the presentation.

Steve introduced the Wharf Creek project for discussion. It was noted parking is problematic. Greg noted there is no easement or right-of-way on Calypso Ln into the property, and he will look further into it. RTC will take this up next meeting to decide to move forward or not. Eric will look into trail history to learn about current access. Steve will draft an initial abutters letter.

Ned noted Tuesday June 3 or 4, the MCTV presentation is on with a max of 2 people presenting. Gave a description.

Greg noted Adelaide subdivision needs a new trail for access to larger trail system in Webster's Wilderness.

Eric motioned to end. Brendan 2nd. No discussion. Unanimous. Adjourned 8:08.
