

CELEBRATE OUR GRAND SUNDAY OPENING KICKOFF! DEC. 2ND FROM 1-5 PM!

Kid's Events

Snowy Day Drop-In Craft

1:30-3:30, Children's Room

Come make your own version of Ezra Jack Keats' book The Snowy Day in the children's room using torn paper, glue, and your own creativity! No registration, just show up for this craft geared to 2-5 year olds while supplies last.

Winter Slime-Making Workshops!

2:00-2:20 pm

2:30- 2:50 pm

3:00- 3:20 pm

Children's Program Room

Sign up for a 20 minute slime-making session! We'll provide slime-making materials and lots of fun add-ins to make the best winter slime possible! This slime program is for ages 6-12 and registration is required (space is limited).

Celtic Harp & Piano

2:00- 3:30 pm,

Library Plaza Program Room

Marshfield native Nicole Anderson will be playing the Celtic harp and piano in a special drop-in performance. Light refreshments will be served.

All-Ages Craft:

Pop-Up Winter Garden

1:30- 4:30 pm, Young Adult Area

Help us create a pop-up winter garden at the library by creating flowers out of yarn, plastic, and other recycled materials! We will have open crafting hours and supplies laid out on our YA area every Sunday in December that we are open. This drop-in craft is recommended for ages 6--adult.
